President's Message:

We are off to a great start for our 2018-2019 year. It is my sincere hope that we can all continue to join together and accomplish the goals of both PREA and GREA as stated in our 2018-2019 Handbook.

Our next meeting is Tuesday, November 13, 2018, at 12:00 noon. This is our annual covered dish luncheon, and will be at the Hardy's Lake House. Lee St. John, author, newspaper columnist and humorist will be our guest speaker. In her latest book "She's a Keeper! Compositions from a Southern Girl's Classroom", she spills the beans about all the funnies that happened to her or she was told about from teacher friends in elementary thought college classrooms. St. John is a retired educator, having taught every grade but first!

You will have the opportunity to contribute to our Scholarship Program, "in honor of" or "in memory of" someone you would like to recognize, to renew your PREA membership dues and to pick up your 2018-2019 Handbook at our next meeting. During this year please refer to our handbook and our web page, www.pauldingrea.org for any information you might need.

PLEASE remember to wear your yellow ribbon and celebrate "Georgia Retired Educators Day" on Sunday, November 4, 2018!

You will continue to receive our News and Views and a reminder phone call prior to each meeting. We hope you will make plans to come to the meeting and BRING A New MEMBER with you to
