Program: Sergeant Ashley Henson will provide information concerning safety issues for retirees.

Hello Paulding Retired Educators,

Our next PREA Meeting is Tuesday, Nov. 14 at 12:00 noon at the First Baptist Church Dallas Fellowship Hall.

Our guest speaker will be Sergeant Ashley Henson, the public information officer for the Paulding County Sheriff's Department. Sheriff Gary Gullede may also be present if his schedule allows. Sergeant Henson will be providing us with information concerning safety issues for retirees and the types of crimes that they see most directed at senior citizens. The focus of Sergeant Henson's team is to provide timely dissemination of information to the public. Additionally, the team works with media, community and business leaders, elected officials and other members of the public to promote excellence in law enforcement services; mobilize public involvement; and increase awareness of public safety initiatives that build upon the department's crime reduction strategies.

For those of you who have not yet joined or renewed PREA dues, you can find a link on our web site to access the membership form: www.pauldingrea.org or check the last page of the newsletter for information to mail in the membership form.

For those who have not yet joined or renewed membership in the Georgia Retired Educators Association, you can access that information at: www.garetirededucators.org

Once again, you will receive our News and Views and a reminder phone call prior to each meeting. If you were unable to attend our first meeting, please pick up your handbook at the November meeting. We will not mail handbooks. During this year please refer to our handbook and to our web page www.pauldingrea.org

Please remember:

Our outreach goal is to help Paulding Helping Hands. Please bring items for donation to our Nov. meeting. If you would like to volunteer call 770-443-1230 for more information.
